

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

1. Remembering: Recall the importance of intellectual property rights in protecting innovations and creations.
2. Understanding: Explain the different types of intellectual property rights and their significance in technological research and innovation.
3. Applying: Apply knowledge of the registration processes and procedures for obtaining intellectual property rights.
4. Analyzing: Examine the various laws and regulations governing intellectual property rights, including geographical indications.
5. Evaluating: Assess the elements of patentability and the duties of a patentee in protecting their inventions.
6. Creating: Develop an understanding of ownership rights in copyright and the concept of trademarks, including non-registrable trademarks and geographical indicators.