

English

Course Outcome as per Bloom's Taxonomy for English with focus on Receptive Skills (Reading and Listening Skills):

1. Comprehend the novella "Carvalho" by Poornachandra Tejaswi through analysis and interpretation (Understanding)
2. Evaluate the themes and motifs in "Carvalho" by Poornachandra Tejaswi through critical analysis (Analyzing)
3. Apply reading strategies to effectively navigate and comprehend complex texts like novellas (Applying)
4. Analyze and interpret poetry such as "Ode on a Grecian Urn" by John Keats and "Ecology" by A.K. Ramanujan to extract deeper meanings (Analyzing)
5. Understand and evaluate environmental issues discussed in TED Talk 1 by Vandana Shiva (Understanding)
6. Reflect on healthcare challenges and solutions presented in TED Talk 2 by Dr. Devi Shetty (Analyzing)

Course Outcome as per Bloom's Taxonomy for English with focus on Productive Skills (Speaking and Writing Skills):

1. Demonstrate effective speaking skills through a PechaKucha presentation on a chosen topic (Creating)
2. Engage in public speaking activities to build confidence and improve oral communication skills (Evaluating)
3. Produce well-structured and coherent pieces of writing in different genres such as copywriting, business writing, travel writing, and article writing (Creating)
4. Implement technical writing strategies to communicate complex information clearly and effectively (Applying)