

English

Course Outcome as per Bloom's Taxonomy for English with focus on Unit 1: Receptive Skills: Reading and Listening

1. Knowledge:

- Identify the key themes and characters in the novella "Mother of 1084" by Mahasweta Devi.
- Recall details and events from the novella "Mother of 1084" to demonstrate understanding.

2. Comprehension:

- Summarize the main events and plot of "Mother of 1084" in their own words.
- Interpret the motives and actions of the characters in "Mother of 1084" based on textual evidence.

3. Application:

- Apply critical thinking skills to analyze the social issues and cultural context presented in "Mother of 1084" by Mahasweta Devi.
- Relate the themes and conflicts in the novella to real-life situations and contemporary issues.

4. Analysis:

- Analyze the author's writing style and narrative techniques in "Mother of 1084" to understand how they contribute to the overall message of the story.
- Compare and contrast different characters and their perspectives in "Mother of 1084" to explore the complexities of human relationships.

5. Synthesis:

- Create a character analysis or a thematic analysis of "Mother of 1084" by Mahasweta Devi, incorporating personal insights and interpretations.
- Develop a creative response or alternative ending to "Mother of 1084" that reflects a deep understanding of the text and its implications.

6. Evaluation:

- Critically evaluate the effectiveness of the novella "Mother of 1084" as a piece of literature, considering its impact on the reader and its relevance in today's society.
- Assess the ethical and moral dilemmas presented in "Mother of 1084" and form reasoned opinions based on textual evidence.

Overall, students will demonstrate proficiency in reading and understanding complex literary texts, as well as in listening to and interpreting spoken material, through a variety of activities and assessments.