

Investments in Stock Market

Course Outcome for "Investments in Stock Market":

1. Recognize the objectives of investment in the stock market at different stages of the investor life cycle.
2. Analyze the risk and return trade-off in stock market investments.
3. Apply the concept of Extended Internal Rate of Return (IRR) to evaluate investment opportunities.
4. Differentiate between Systematic and Unsystematic risk in investments.
5. Calculate and interpret risk measures such as Standard Deviation and Beta for a given stock.
6. Develop strategies to manage risks in stock market investments.
7. Conduct Investment Analysis using economic and company analysis.
8. Understand the functioning of stock exchanges, including the role of DEMAT and Trading accounts.
9. Execute the trading process in stock exchanges effectively.
10. Evaluate the performance of investments based on key financial metrics and market conditions.