

E-Commerce

1. Remembering: Students will be able to recall key concepts and basics of E-Commerce, including its definition, importance, and various components such as Architectural framework, E-Retailing, and Categories of e-services.
2. Understanding: Students will demonstrate a clear understanding of EDI technology, Digital economy, and the various categories of e-services available in the market.
3. Applying: Students will be able to apply their knowledge of Cyber Crime, Network Security, and Network Firewalls to analyze and evaluate the security concerns and risks associated with E-Commerce transactions.
4. Analyzing: Students will critically analyze and compare different methods of Intellectual Property Protection in the context of E-Commerce, and evaluate their effectiveness in safeguarding digital assets.
5. Evaluating: Students will be able to assess the challenges and opportunities presented by the Digital economy in the realm of E-Commerce, and propose strategic solutions to address them.
6. Creating: Students will design and implement effective security measures to protect E-Commerce platforms from potential cyber threats, ensuring a safe and secure online environment for both businesses and consumers.